Autodesk Certified Instructor certification:

To earn the Autodesk Certified Instructor (ACI) certification, an instructor must be affiliated with an Authorized Training Center (ATC) or an Authorized Academic Partner (AAP). Only Affiliated Instructors may pursue the ACI certification credential. An "Affiliated Instructor" is an instructor who is a full-time, a part-time, or a contract employee with an Authorized ATC or AAP partner.

Upon earning the Autodesk Certified Instructor Credential, an ACI Instructor becomes part of the Autodesk Learning Partner Community. ACI Instructors can display their globally recognized Autodesk Certified Instructor badge across websites, blogs, and their social media profiles.

Instructor Requirements to earn ACI certification:

- Instructor must obtain access to Autodesk's instructor development tools on Autodesk Learning Central (ALC)
 - ACI FAQ revised to include detailed ALC access instructions
 - Obtain Instructor ID# from affiliated ATC or AAP
 - Create your Autodesk profile
- Instructor must complete mandatory ALC learning paths:
 - Autodesk Instructional Methods e-course
 - Autodesk software instructor e-courses | 16 hours, online
 - Teach a minimum of ___ hours of Autodesk product training
 - Maintain a minimum 85% instructor satisfaction rating in the Training Evaluation System
 - ACI digital badge will be issued on the Acclaim platform

Instructor Requirements to maintain ACI status:

- To maintain Autodesk Certified Instructor status, ACI Instructors are required to annually:
- Complete 20-hours minimum Autodesk product/workflow training
 - Teach 40-hours minimum of Autodesk product training
 - Complete 10-hours minimum continuing professional development training on improving instructional skills and/or teaching the future of design
 - Submit one article or featured contribution to a published journal or the Autodesk Knowledge Network, or deliver one presentation at a professional/education conference

ACI Program Tiers:

ACI Instructors who maintain the ACI credential continuously will also receive a Tier Award:

- 3-year ACI Credential maintained = SILVER TIER
- 6-year ACI Credential maintained = GOLD TIER
- 9-year ACI Credential maintained = PLATINUM TIER

AUTODESK CERTIFIED INSTRUCTOR

Autodesk Certified Instructors may attain Badge status for additional professional development activities*:

Autodesk will Award and Promote 800+ instructors who completed requirements in FY17 via IDP Portal to the ACI Silver Tier

2000*

ALP Instructors

Will be granted access to Autodesk Learning Central for the first time in FY19

* Includes ATC, AAP, & MTP instructors
